Missing Heroes (Broken Starships Book 1) Nathan Duke

Poor heroes die easily in space, and Brian Collins is no hero. He works as a mechanic aboard a starship, but he isn't paid much and his captain considers him expendable. He is halfway through a 20-year contract with the Navy, and he plans to survive the full term.

But life in space is not easy, and your life is at stake even if you don't want to be a hero.

When Brian's ship breaks down in the middle of space and the captain starts sending the crew outside to die, even desertion becomes an option. As if having unreliable safety equipment aboard the ship weren't enough, he will have to dodge asteroid fields, avoid getting lost in space, and survive.

Survival might require Brian to reconsider his priorities. Is he ready to leave the Navy and become an outlaw, or will he risk everything to fulfill his duty?
