Goodbye Blue Moon (French Edition) Patrick Philippart

Trente-cinq ans, le bel âge ? Pour Xavier, le narrateur de Goodbye Blue Moon, son trente-cinquième anniversaire marque le début d'une année terrible. C'est comme si son existence, jusque-là tout entière vouée à l'insouciance, allait soudain craquer de toutes parts sous une avalanche de bouleversements inattendus. Sa vie amoureuse, mais aussi professionnelle, familiale, et même amicale: rien ne va résister à cette tempête qui s'abat sur lui sans crier gare. À la fin de Goodbye Blue Moon, Xavier a trente-six ans et il n'a plus grand'chose à voir avec l'adolescent prolongé qu'il était un an plus tôt. A-t-il pour autant réussi son entrée dans le monde adulte ? C'est la question que ce roman pose dans une constante harmonie d'humour et d'émotion. Si vous avez aimé Cohabitation interdite, le précédent roman de Patrick Philippart, si vous aimez son anti-héros Dimitri Boizot, alors vous aimerez sans aucun doute Xavier Mathy, le narrateur de Goodbye Blue Moon. Mais, à propos, pourquoi ce titre ? Vous découvrirez la réponse en vous plongeant dans ce roman tout à fait contemporain, dont on imagine déjà la merveilleuse comédie sentimentale qu'il ferait au cinéma...
