Life is a journey.

This is the true story of love found, tragic loss, and dealing with the darkness. While told through a series of flashbacks while on a business trip to China, both stories parallel each other.

If you are dealing with the illness of depression, are the caregiver of someone afflicted with it, or are a survivor of the ultimate submission to the darkness, then this was written for you. It is the story of faith, lost and found.

Faith sustains us.
