The Japanese Earthquake, tsunami and nuclear events have abruptly rendered this book very, very important; and overnight the killings of UN personnel in Afghanistan again shows the necessity for UN staff around the world to organize their lives and prepare a disaster roadmap for their loved ones, should something happen, as happened before.

SUDDEN DEPARTURE SYNDROME was created to help us organize and carry on with our lives when we lose loved ones suddenly.

"Sudden Departure Syndrome or losing a loved one has become an epidemic in all nations today, whether from divorce and abandonment or death. Muriel Glasgow following decades of service at UNICEF provides the first "world publication" to heal the pain of Sudden Departures. Finally a cure as important as aspirin in the 1920's for the modern pains that face us. We all are included in this book through some one we know and hug. RUN to the drug store and get SUDDEN DEPARTURE which like Chicken Soup or Mars and Venus Colliding, and my own recent TAPPING THE SOURCE, is sure to be a mega READ world wide" -. Berny Dohrmann, Chairman CEO Space radio show host, bestselling author, movie producer.

The problem most of us face is the suddenness of the departure or loss of our loved ones, relationships, etc. Their sudden departure leaves us helpless and hopeless and out of control as we have no clue as to their ultimate wishes, as our loved ones usually have not organized their financial clutter.

Sudden Departure Syndrome gives people tips on how to redress the problem of seeming lack of control, to control over our wants, wishes, desires at check out time. With the affirmations and quotes contained therein, It also helps people to live their lives with quality and impact.

September Eleven started the thinking about sharing this information; a devastating health diagnosis gave birth to the book.; and events like Air France Flight 447 over the coast of Brazil, the sudden departure of Michael Jackson; the many who disappeared during the earthquake, the sudden loss of loved ones in Haiti; showed that the sudden departure and sudden loss of our loved ones can cause unnecessary drama for those left behind and faced with picking up the pieces, about which there is usually not a clue. This book was created to help us carry on with our lives when we lose our loved ones who suddenly depart, or in the event that we depart suddenly. It represents a road map of their or our lives. It also helps those left behind to cope more effectively with any grief or depression that might have arisen.

"The booklet on Sudden Departure Syndrome ( SDS ) is an essential aid to all UN personnel, who may be assigned to situations and locations in many parts of the world at short notice, where medical, legal and financial conditions may be deficient and international communications difficult to access. It would be especially useful if generous donors could be invited to fund translation into all the UN languages, at least, so that it could be part of a package of essential information given to all new staff members, both regular and technical advisers." NT, NY

Military Personnel are grappling with the spectre of the syndrome which can rear its head at any moment.
