Dawson Fur Hire (Bears Fur Hire Book 5) T. S. Joyce

Dalton Dawson is reeling on the anniversary of an event that changed his life forever. All he wants to do is hide from his past for a few days, but in walks trouble in the form of a timid human who has his heart thawing for the first time in years. He's not looking for a mate, but Kate Hawke is a fascinating and complicated woman that his wolf is desperate to figure out. Convinced she is just a distraction for his spiraling inner animal, he allows himself to watch her from afar, but what he learns about Kate could change everything and send him on a path he can't return from.

Kate has been burned by a shifter before, and now Dalton Dawson is following her. One look at the growly, bright-eyed stranger and she knows exactly what is lurking inside of him. Sure, she's scared and she knows better than to get into a friendship with a werewolf, but Dalton is tearing down her walls one by one. Dalton makes her feel safe and empowered, and it's been a long time since her future looked so bright. But as both of their pasts come back to haunt them, she'll have to decide whether Dalton is really the safe choice when it comes to protecting her heart...and her life.

Content Warning: Explicit love scenes, naughty language, and piles of sexy shifter secrets. Intended for mature audiences.
