Day demonstrates how the Democratic Party has been hijacked by the extremely liberal members of the party and special interest groups such as NARAL. She illustrates that only 25% of people in America support the party's agenda of "abortion on demand," and that this superliberal approach to abortion has driven away voters because of this issue. This book is also important for Republicans to read, giving a powerful new perspective and potential ally in Congress. Many pro-life measures in Congress could not have been passed if it hadn't been for pro-life Democrats, simply because the Republicans did not have enough votes. The Democratic Party's suppression of its pro-life members is a serious issue for all pro-life people, Democrat or Republican.
