The Long Way Home (The Bradley Series Book 1) Carolina Hill

Newly published novelist Laura Walker dreads going "home" for her first book signing. There are reasons she hasn't been back in fifteen years, and topping the list is her high school boyfriend. In such a small community, it's inevitable that she sees him, but things really get complicated when she ends up in spending part of an unforgettable night with him. She never got over him in the first place, and things get even more complicated after their brief reunion. It's a long, twisting, turning road, but she has to follow it and be true not only to herself, but to everyone and everything if she's ever going to truly find her way home—wherever that may be.
