Most people cover up something. This is for the ones that live with the lies, to the ones who make accommodations while watching every action taken and tales told. They can never be real. They are imprisoned by the make believe world they present to the public. Men and woman, who wear the mask for so long, may have forgotten what true life they were destined to live. You are living a Cover-Girl or Cover-Guy life if you mask their dysfunction ... This is the story of a preacher's wife living a lie that no one would imagine.
