Lindsay Meredith needs a holiday.

Back home in Kenya, Gavin is waiting eagerly for her answer to his marriage proposal and her father is keen to see her married and set up on a nearby ranch.

Lindsay needs time - and space - to think.

She decides it is the perfect time to go and visit her Aunt in England, to stay at White Chestnuts, a place full of happy childhood memories.

But after she arrives she decides she must find a temporary job in England.

Unsure about where her heart truly lies, Lindsey decides to take up the position of a housekeeper for Simon Kirkby and his two children.

Yet after she meets Sonia Vincent, a beautiful model, who appears to be the only person Simon has time for, including his children, Lindsey concludes that Simon must be the most selfish and arrogant man she has ever met.

Then after Lindsey's friend, and persistent admirer, Dr Andrew Kirkby lets slip a secret about Simon Kirkby's family and his past, Lindsey begins to realise that she may have misunderstood Simon.

Perhaps she does have feelings for the cold-hearted and seemingly selfish Mr Kirkby after all?

Will Lindsey decide to return home to Kenya to be with Gavin? Or will she act upon her new and unexpected feelings for Simon? After all, for Lindsay home is where the heart is...but where does her heart truly lie?

'Home Is Where the Heart' Is touching story about family, love, and new beginnings. It is perfect for fans of Hilary Boyd and Lesley Pearse.
