The Counterfeit Cowgirl Kathryn Brocato

Felicity Clayton, tired of life on the road as a top saleswoman, trades in her career to become the owner of The Cosmic Cowgirl boutique in Nashville. Thus she works hard to carefully cultivate her fashion-house cowgirl image. So when she takes a two-week vacation to Foxxe, Texas, to prepare her recently deceased grandmother's house for sale, she's astonished to find herself disliked almost before she steps out of her truck.

Aaron Whitaker runs the local Chevrolet dealership and raises cows and horses. He has no use for a flashy, brown-eyed fake cowgirl who has ignored her grandmother for years, especially one driving a Dodge pickup truck. And with his sister and her two young sons staying with him, he doesn't have time to get involved with the menace next door-so why is he beginning to feel an unwanted attraction to her?

Can these opposites overcome their differences enough to experience the love of a lifetime?
