This is the story of iLian and his dog, Smalls. iLian and Smalls have a special bond, and they are best friends.

However, iLian has a bad habit: he says he can't do a lot of things, but the problem is that he never starts to do anything about it!

One day, iLian is confronted with a dilemma: he can save his best friend or stay in his comfort zone.

What will he do?

This story about the friendship between a boy and his dog will teach your child the importance of self-confidence and taking action no matter what. It will show your child how to turn a bad situation into a good one.

Teach your child to see his or her full potential.
