Apartheid in South Africa (Witness to History) David Downing

This series uses a variety of sources to give an insight into a particular period. The aim is to provide a history resource with a strong emphasis on evidence and an attractive design to develop the skills of history students. Each book contains: an initial section introducing the period and the sources available; extended quotation from the source on one page and then a commentary giving historical background; assessment of the reliability of the sources; timeline, further reading and detailed acknowledgements for sources used in book; and glossary and index.
