Minster Jacqueline Ferrell wrote these letters that were birthed out of her spirit. One night she had an encounter with the Lord that changed her life forever. The Lord Himself visited her in an open vision where the light was unlike any other that she had ever experienced. And then He spoke: "seek ye first the kingdom of God" (Matthew 6:33) and the second word was "anything you ask in My Son (Jesus) Name, I will do it." This book was birthed out of the experiences that followed. God has brought her through struggles and trials, engulfed with the knowledge that Abba (Father) was always there to listen and give directions. She stands on "God Gets the Glory", no matter what turmoil may come. God still remains faithful to His word. He will and always will get the Glory. The letters speak to her father in whom she affectionately calls..... "DADDY"
