Relinquished K.A. Hunter

Adult romantic suspense novel Jules Donovan has been in and out of unsavory foster homes and repulsive motels her entire life. She's known nothing but loss, abandonment, crime, and pain. Now that she's aged out of the system, she can't remember ever having dreams for her future because she's constantly fighting for daily survival. When she meets the Riley brothers, there's something about them that draws her in. She's never let her guard down, but Dante and Holden make her feel valuable, like she actually matters. And for the first time in her life, she senses something she's never experienced before—protection. But can these mysterious brothers keep her safe from the dark monsters that lie in wait, ready for their final revenge? And how in the hell does older brother Dante know so much about her anyway? Unbeknownst to her, things have been set in motion ever since she was ripped from her mother's womb and, as each jagged piece of her life unfolds, she will begin to wonder: who's really in charge of her fate? Adult novel with strong language and graphic situations.
