From the book:

"Yes." I answered surprising myself. Why had I said that? What had I just agreed to?

My thoughts scattered like frightened birds as William kissed me.

Oh. Oh, his lips were divine! Velvet and silk combined could not equal their softness as they pressed to my own. It was better than I had ever dreamt.

My hands wandered over his broad shoulders and down his chest. He pulled his lips back from mine, laughter bubbling from inside his chest.

"I'm glad." His large hand caught me around the wrist and pushed it lower. He pressed my hand against the large bulge in his jeans and grinned. "If we are exchanging services, then I think you should get started."
