How much do we really know about the time when Christ will come in glory to cleanse the earth by fire? And what will life really be like during the Millennium? After anticipating the return of the Savior with Living in the Eleventh Hour, readers can learn more about what follows. Relying on the words of ancient and latter-day prophets, Robert L. Millet shares what has been revealed about Christs preliminary appearance, His return in majesty and power, and His millennial reign--a time of goodness and peace. He also shares details about important eternal doctrines such as resurrection from the dead, Judgment Day, the many mansions of glory, and exaltation. This timely follow-up book will inspire us to live today as if He were coming tomorrow.
