Morgan Carter always lived life on the edge. He never cared about anything or anyone until he set his sights on Hayley Stevens. Hayley is someone that he has known since they were kids, but it wasn't until their adult years that he started to notice how beautiful of a woman she really had become. Unfortunately, it's hard to see her as anything more than his best friend's sister.

Hayley, on the other hand, had instantly felt a connection with Morgan the moment they met. She knows that she's playing with fire, especially since her brother doesn't want him anywhere near her. But, she's determined to make Morgan hers, even if it destroys the relationship she has with her brother and the life-long friendship between the two.

Once they give in to their desires of being together, they are faced with several issues. Secrets are unveiled as deceit and mayhem follow. Will there be anyone that Morgan and Hayley can run to or will they learn there is nobody around that they can really trust?
