Dreaming is universal. People in all cultures have dreams and corresponding interpretations of what they might mean - a sign of the future or a message from the gods. Even in today's materialistic world, we are intrigued by the potential meaning of these visions. First published in 1901, 10,000 DREAMS INTERPRETED is an exceptional handbook to dream interpretation. This illustrated edition has been expanded and revised and remains a compelling and exhaustive compendium of the symbols that crop up in our dreamscape.
