No Room In The Inn: A Tale of the Night Before the Nativity Eric Walker

A stranger shows up in the town of Bethlehem looking for a place to rest. But because of a Roman decree, the city is crowded and there are no rooms available. An innkeeper allows the stranger to rest with animals in a stable, but the animals have no idea what is in store! This illustrated children's story will tell a tale of what happened to help usher in the Savior of the World on the very first Christmas!
