What is the appeal and draw to doodling and sketching? There are many aspects that make this ancient and simple art form so great. There is a peace and a harmony that comes together and radiates out from a modest piece of art created with the humble tools of pencil and paper. Sketches contain an emotion and a presence that is strikingly different from a photograph and even a painting. Sketching is raw beauty, the uninhibited act of pencil to paper. Beauty breeds power, makes waves of change, and provokes the world to be the best version of itself.

If you have ever thought that you were incapable of learning how to sketch but always wanted to know how? Are you interested in how you can easily learn how to begin drawing, sketching, and doodling? Then this is the eBook for you!

Inside, you will learn the importance of sketching and doodling, the tools of the trade, how to properly warm up before a sketching session, how to create your first sketch, how to foster focus and creative inspiration, as well as some tips and tricks for sketching!
