Great Religions of Modern Man, Protestantism J. Leslie (Ed) Gard, Richard A. General Editor Dunstan
"The Spirit of Protestantism: the God-Man encounter as living experience in history, the primacy of freedom and responsibility, and the reflection in Christian belief of the changing human situation." - Part of the Great Religions of Modern Man series. The others being Buddhism, Catholicism, Hinduism, Islam, & Judaism. - The six volumes in this series present the major religions of the modern world, their meaning, their traditions, and their contemporary significance. Each volume contains an extensive selection of the most important writings of the religious tradition, organized, with the editor's introductions and interpretations, to form a coherent and meaningful account of the religion from the viewpoint of its own testimony on its beliefs and practices.
