Disappear (Cassandra R's Daydream) (Volume 1) Chelsea Elizabeth Peseller

Cassandra Rigtrich was ripped from her known world when her mother died of breast cancer. Thrown into confusion and emotional turmoil, she is taken on a journey she seemingly has no control over, compounding her pain and suffering.

She wants nothing more than to be and feel loved.

When one assault after another compromises her desire, she seeks a simpler solution: escape.

Her life becomes a massive mess, which in turn leads to more hardship, pain, and suffering. She is completely alone. Will anything free her? Will any amount of willpower throw her onto a different course?

From love to abuse to incredible strength, this character shows it all... even if only in small doses at first. What would you do if your mother died? How would you swallow the grief? Every person is different, and because relationships are complicated, every grieving process is different, too.

Go on a journey with Cassandra. All she truly wants is love... and all she truly gets is pain. Her story illustrates the reason why people lose faith... and have to find their way back to it the hard way.
