There are many stories told about the mansion on the hill. Rumors whispered in the town below say that it once belonged to a noble family whose last heir died in World War I. Since then, it has sat empty. Waiting. The locals say the ghosts of the family linger inside.

Lily Mead doesn't believe in ghosts. Her uncle, however, does. Back home after being laid off work, she dutifully goes with him to the old house, annoyed that she's wasting her cinematography training on such a ridiculous venture. But when her uncle and his ghost hunting buddy are scared out of the house, Lily finds a whole lot more than she bargained for.
