Dancing with Daemons: Finding Purpose - Passion & Prosperity (Part 2 - The Boy in the Boat) (Volume 2) Mr Brian O'Raleigh

Following his acclaimed book; 'The Boy in the Boat' - Brian's new work - 'Dancing with Daemons' describes the dramatic events that occur after he loses his marriage, his home, his money and his business. In a story that is always engrossing, often shocking and sometimes funny, he goes in pursuit of a psychological mystery that appears to be destroying his relationships, his work and his life. His search takes him to America, where he meets Dr Graham Baker, one of the most sought after psychiatrists in the USA. Oprah Winfrey, Stephen Spielberg, Liz Taylor and Cher are among a host of celebrities he claims have read his books or attended his workshops and, with his seminars drawing record crowds, this charismatic, born again, hypnotist cum philosopher had obviously struck a deep and resonant chord in the hearts and minds of middle America. But when O'Raleigh invites Dr Baker to Sydney to conduct training seminars for Australian hypnotists he is shocked to finds himself enmeshed in a circle of lies, greed and corruption that would destroy the integrity of the entire tour and expose the 'shadow' of the world's most famous therapist.
