Elizabeth's Heart: Book Two (The 1929 Series) (Volume 2) M. L. Gardner

Simon Sinclair, who is institutionalized in 1929 for having prophetic visions, narrates from inside the Massachusetts Asylum for Feeble Minds and Lunatics. There he meets Elizabeth, a young woman with a shadow personality and a dark, secretive past. Someone Simon knows he is destined to love. As their lives become entwined, their attachment for each other grows as does their belief that together, they are the other's cure. But outside their circle of love, others see the couple growing increasingly unstable. Freedom is the only option and together they run, setting off a chain of events that directly touches the lives of the characters from 1929 Jonathan's Cross - Book One.
