After becoming a champion athlete in Europe, Roberto Visconti comes to America and in a few short years is the number one Bodybuilder.

His ambition now is to become a movie star. He has learned early in his quest that all his assignations with wealthy influential business men would be of enormous help.

Years later, after his success in the movie industry, he now sets a new course----he will enter the world of politics.

Bodybuilders,Drugs & Sex is by no means a literary work. Although listed as a novel, it is based on the truth from my many years of experience in the gym business.
