Sketch of the Life of Richard Dobbs Spaight of North Carolina (Classic Reprint) John H. Wheeler

The recent centennial period of our nation was marked by a spirit of historic inquiry. Ooniness, by a resolution of 13th of March, 1876, recommended to the people of the several States to assemble in their several counties or towns, at the approaching anniversary of our National Independence, and that they cause to have delivered on such day an historical sketch of said county or town, so that a complete record might thus be obtained of the progress of our Institutions during the first centennial of their existence. This resolve was promulgated by the President, on 21st May, 1876, with the hope that the object of such resolution might meet the approbation of the people, and that proper steps might be taken to carry the same into effect. The committee for the restoration of Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, invited the presence of the American Historians, Biographers and Literati at that place on the 2nd July, 1876, (the centennial anniversary of the Resolutions of Independence,) desiring that a biographical sketch of every individual, whose memory is associated with the building, during the early days of the Republic, be prepared and deposited on that day. From advanced sheets of Col. John H. Wheeler's forthcoming volume, Leading Men of North Carolina.
