Hands up if you've ever been on holiday and toyed with the idea of making your stay a more permanent one. No surprise, really – grey skies versus blue, roads clogged with stressed commuters versus a walk to work in the sunshine, wet weekends indoors versus days on the beach or round the pool. In fact it's quite a wonder why more people don't bite the bullet and head for sunnier climes. However, relocating can seem daunting – especially if you don't know much about the place. Hopefully with the help of this book, deciding if moving to Tenerife is right for you, actually taking the plunge, and doing all the stuff that follows, should become a lot clearer. Moving to Tenerife is a useful guide that will show you the easiest path so you can begin enjoying your brand new life in the sun as soon as possible.
