This book is a crash course for Christians with lifelong results. The method described in this book is easy to apply and will help you to build and sustain a relationship with God. Especially if you hardly have the time or just find it difficult to read this ancient but so important book. No longer will Bible reading be a dull exercise, but a joyful moment during your day.

Many people do not know how to read the Bible. Where do you start? How do you know what the Bible asks of you? How to explain everything? Were those miracles real?

These are relevant questions but they can distract us from what the Bible is really about. In the Bible, God reveals himself to us and reveals who you are. He has given us the Bible in order to be able to speak with us. There is a reason why the Bible is also called the Word of God.

Unfortunately, many churches no longer teach us how to read the Bible. This is strange because understanding the Bible comes with practice. Daily practice. Reading the Bible is a bit like playing sports. In the beginning, you might not like it. But the more you do it the better you feel. You start to see results. Playing sports will make you physically fit. If you also want to have good spiritual condition, you really need the Bible.
