Fred Peschl was born and raised in Yankton, South Dakota, where he worked in a meat market. He was a paratrooper in the 507th Parachute Infantry on D-Day during World War II, and was captured by the Germans. He was placed in Stalag Luft IV, Poland, until February 1945 when the prisoners were forcibly marched during a bitterly cold winter and with very few provisions across Germany just ahead of the advancing Russian army. After the war Fred returned to South Dakota.
