The Lindsey Barron Series is the US answer to Harry Potter. A hundred years ago, wizards and witches finally came out, openly working their spells, accepted by those who have no such skills. Around the country, magic schools were established, where the students go to learn both their traditional subjects and also magic. When they graduate, they have a high school diploma as well as mastery of much magic. Set in our future, now twelve years old, Lindsey discovers that she has been given a full scholarship to Bradbury's School of Magic, somewhere near Telluride, Colorado. Her father, though she did not know it, was a famous wizard, primarily responsible for capturing the incredibly evil wizard known as Dominus Malefic, some fifteen years ago. Now Dominus has escaped and the action begins! This year, Bradbury's is hosting foreign exchange students from the Utrecht School of Magic, the Netherlands. One of the students is physically like Ashley, and Lindsey works with both Ashley and Jeannette to regenerate their arms, giving them back their quality of life. Dominus continues his bid for the President of the United States. He begins handing out valuable golden rings to his ardent supporters, well over a million of them. During their day trip in Telluride, Pam leads them to a house which is actually a secret place where Dominus is keeping his tortured, female toys, as he calls them. Finding these young women so badly mistreated, Lindsey rescues them and sees that they are fully healed. Dominus loses his bid for president, but secretly activates the millions of rings he has given out. These rings embed themselves into the wearer's fingers and cannot be removed. Via the rings, Dominus can now force the wearer to do what he chooses. One of the rings is now worn by the newly elected President, Missy Snow. Her first action is to grant Dominus and his Death Stalkers a full pardon for all past crimes, making Dominus now a model citizen! Many complications begin to arise and Lindsey is invited to the Presidential Inaugural Ball, where she again faces Dominus.
